United States Marine Corps

GySgt Justin N. McLinn
Applications Developer
Naval Information Warfare Center

Gunnery Sergeant McLinn currently serves as an Application Developer for Naval Information Warfare Center Atlantic.

Born in Grand Junction Colorado, and raised in North Branch Minnesota, Gunnery Sergeant McLinn attended recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot Sand Diego, CA in December of 2008.

Throughout his career Gunnery Sergeant McLinn has been assigned to numerous duties to include: Data System Specialist, Data System Specialist Noncommissioned Officer in Charge (NCO) in Charge; Basic Recruiter, Assistant Staff Noncommissioned (SNCO) in Charge Recruiting Substation Louisville; Communications Chief, Platoon Sergeant, Helpdesk SNCOIC; Assistant Cyber Security Chief, Information System Security Manager, and Software Engineer.

He has deployed with Regimental Combat Team in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. He assisted in the setup of a Network and Systems Architecture on the USS Iwo Jima in support of New York City Fleet Week in 2010, and again in 2012 on the USS Wasp.

During his career he has received the following formal military training: Career Course, Advanced Course at the SNCO Academy Camp Lejeune, NC; Basic Recruiter Course at Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego, CA; Data Systems Specialist Course, Data Systems Chief Course at Marine Corps Communication-Electronics School Twentynine Palms California; Intro to Satellite Communications, Secure Mobile Anti-Jam Reliable Tactical Terminal (SMART-T) at Fort Gordon, GA; Tactical Data Network Data Distribution System, CompTIA Network+, CompTIA Security+ at Communications Training Center II at Camp Lejeune, NC; and Computer Systems Programming Course at Keesler Air Force Base Biloxi, MS.

His personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal with 1 Gold Star, and the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal.